Conger cuddling is OFF!

THE long-awaited return of one of Lyme Regis' most bizarre summer attractions - conger cuddling - will not be revived today (Wednesday).

The iconic event, once one of the most popular attractions in the resort's annual Lifeboat Week, has fallen foul of road closure issues at the Cobb and concerns that the police will be unable to deal with any crowd control problems.

Cuddling the conger - a real-life version of table-skittles with two teams trying to knock over their opponents with a dead conger eel - was to have been the finale of the Lyme Lympics due to take place on the seafront this afternoon, starting at 5pm.

The event was due to happen in Cobb Square at 7pm but has now been cancelled, resulting in the resignation of the groups' PR man Geoff Baker, saying he is "disgusted at the absence of prescience and imagination among the cops and councils".

Lyme Lympics started life as the Jubilee Games but they were washed out at the end of the weekend programme to celebrate the Queen's Jubilee in early June.

by Philip Evans
philip@pemedial.co.uk

The main organiser, local artist Hugh Dunford-Wood, and his team then decided to change the name of the event to Lyme Lympics and stage the programme of crazy fun games during the week between Lyme's two main summer attractions - Lifeboat Week and the Regatta and Carnival - to provide an additional seasonal attraction.

TV presenter

The event would have provided Lyme with town-boosting national publicity as TV presenter Rory McGrath was intending to take part in conger cuddling and film it for his new Channel 5 television series, "Champions of The World".

In a statement after resigning from the organising committee, Mr Baker, who was Beatle Paul McCartney's head of PR for 15 years, said: "Despite Hugh Dunford

Wood being assured by various Lyme officials that the cuddling could go ahead, despite the town council approving it last week, despite the majority of real locals hailing and celebrating its comeback gleefully on social media and in Broad Street, despite the fact that traders were heartily looking forward to the much-needed extra extra custom and despite the fact that it could have got Lyme a lot of also needed national publicity, the police stopped it after talking to councils. So gold medal for good use of imagination there.

Lift door vandalised

THE door of the public lift at the modernised Marine Parade shelters in Lyme Regis has been vandalised, causing hundreds of pounds in damage.

The lift door at the eastern end of the shelters was smashed on Saturday evening when the town was packed with people watching the Lifeboat Week fireworks display.

Police are hoping that CCTV at various Marine Parade premises will help them identify the culprits.

ANDREW Hussey and was born and raised in Bridport. The 29-year-old studied art and design at college and gained a BA (Hons) degree in photojournalism and documentary photography.

He has worked as a chef at the Olive Tree restaurant in Bridport since 2009 and is planning to enroll in a professional cookery course at Weymouth College this September.

He will also be teaching a photography course in September as part of 'Love Learning' based in Bridport, aimed at complete novices and those who want to further their understanding of photography.

■ HOW did your interest in photography begin?

My passion for photography stemmed from my dad. He was very passionate about photography but it was placed on the backburner when my sister and I were born. I always had some sort of basic camera when I was growing up but when I was old enough to have a go on my 35mm Minolta I became hooked.

■ HAVE you a favourite subject to photograph?

My favourite subject to photograph without a doubt is the Great British public enjoying a traditional bank holiday weekend by the sea, come rain or shine. I love to capture the peculiar and humorous side of family holidays from fish and chips in the pouring rain to grandparents building sandcastles with their grandchildren. It really captures a sense of the traditional British holiday.

■ CAN you remember the first thing you photographed and the last?

I don't remember the first photo I took but the first image that ignited my passion was of my dad next to a swimming pool in Rhodes. It was the first time I used his camera and came out perfectly exposed. I'm pretty sure it went straight in the bin though as it wasn't particularly flattering. My most recent was sat on top of Allington Hill this afternoon. I love the views from up there, looking across the countryside.

■ WHAT tips or advice would you give to an aspiring photographer?

I don't believe you can get enough advice when it comes to photography. Everybody sees the world differently and you can never stop learning. Probably the most important piece of advice would be to photograph what you love. If you are passionate about your subject matter it will show within the image and you will begin to create beautiful photos.

■ DO you have any other hobbies beside photography?

60 SECOND INTERVIEW

I love cooking, I'm a little obsessed to be honest. I work full time as a chef in Bridport but when I'm not working I'm usually at home in the kitchen with cookery shows on in the background. I just love the look on people's faces when they try something you've made and truly enjoy it. When something you love doing pays off it's an instant good feeling.

■ ARE you enjoying the Olympics?

I usually have to catch up with the Olympics in the evenings after work but I saw Tom Daley on the ten metre today for team GB and was amazed at his talent being so young. His face after his disappointing dive in round 4 told a thousand stories as he realised his hopes for a medal were starting to fade. It's an image that will certainly stick in my mind.

■ WHAT would your perfect day entail?

It would be a lazy one! It's rare that I get to just switch off, so being able to wake up somewhere in the south of France in the summer and just watch the world go by, trying the local produce and watching the sun go down with a nice cold beer would be amazing. I'm a man of simple pleasures!

■ IF you could ask anyone from history for a pint or a dinner party who would they be?

That's easy, Johnny Cash, no contest! I know it sounds a bit of a cop out considering the entire history of the human race but he had such an amazing life and his music is full of passion, love, loss, and is just awesome. I'd sit down, have a beer with him and just shoot the breeze all day long.

■ IF you were stuck on a desert island what three things would you want with you?

Well I should probably say stuff like a Kindle with the entire back catalogue of the British library, some sort of elaborate survival gear, and a guitar so I will always have music. But I can't play, I fall asleep whenever I start to read and I wouldn't know what to do with the survival stuff to be honest. I'd just take a flint to start a fire, a fishing rod, and a nice comfy armchair. That would do me. Like I said before, a man of simple pleasures.

Action-packed week for lifeboat crew

BURTON BRADSTOCK TRAGEDY AMONG THE EIGHT CALL-OUTS IN NINE DAYS

LYME Regis lifeboat crew played an important role in a major rescue operation at Burton Bradstock last week, when a landslide killed a 22-year-old woman.

The crew was launched at 1.10pm on Tuesday of the annual Lifeboat Week fundraising events following the major slip. Crews were rotated throughout the day and into the night providing help ashore and a watchful eye from the sea on the cliffs in case of further collapse.

The crew also enforced a 500-metre exclusion zone from the beach.

Two crewmembers, Dave Street and Elliott Herbert, went ashore to assist other rescue services, and the lifeboat was used to ferry equipment along the shoreline.

The first Lyme Regis crew were at sea for four hours before a four-man relief crew was taken to the scene thanks to an offer from fishing boat skipper Allan Nation and his vessel "Amaretto 2".

by Francesca Evans
francesca@pemedi.co.uk

A rotation plan was devised to stay on scene late into the night.

One crewmember, Jon Broome, said: "We were effectively the eyes from the sea for the other rescue services. And apart from helping to move vital equipment we also kept watch on the cliffs for any further movement and would have raised the alarm if necessary."

Holidaymaker Charlotte Blackman, from Heanor, Derbyshire, was trapped under 400 tonnes of rock near Freshwater Beach Holiday Park. Her body was found after hours of searching.

It was reported that Charlotte's father and boyfriend witnessed the slip and frantically tried to dig her out.

Lyme Regis lifeboat crew was stood down at 4am after 15 hours at sea, during which four crews were used on rotation. The last task of the lifeboat crew was to take the victim's body to West Bay accompanied by police.

The emergency was one of eight shouts within nine days for the crew, making it the busiest and most dramatic Lifeboat Week on record.

The crew were back in action on Wednesday morning, warning beach users about the risks of landslips. Beaches along the Jurassic Coast, including East Cliff Beach at Lyme Regis and Charmouth Beach, were closed due to safety concerns regarding the crumbling cliffs. However, as temperatures soared many holidaymakers ignored the warnings.

Three separate volunteer lifeboat crews went to sea throughout the day issuing warnings with a megaphone that sunbathers should not sit near overhanging cliffs.

A further landslide fell at Stonebarrow on Thursday morning.

Dorset County Council has warned: "Walkers and fossil collectors along the West Dorset coastline have been urged to take care after the recent heavy rainfall has left the cliffs in an unusually unstable condition."

"The exceptionally wet weather of recent months, which culminated in the floods of July 7th, has led to a heightened risk of rock falls anywhere and at any time along the coast.

"Landslides have also delivered thick mudflows and quicksands to the beaches in many places. One of the hidden hazards is that the sea can wash sand and shingle over the mud and quicksand, giving the appearance of a solid beach."

"As a result there is an increased risk to the public visiting some parts of the coast, especially where the beach is backed by cliffs. The advice is to stay well away from the cliffs at all times and to beware of mudflows and quicksand, especially when the tide is coming in as it is possible to become cut off from the normal exit points to and from the beaches."

The statement said there had been several landslides on the Lyme to Axmouth Undercliff, including on Monmouth Beach which it warned walkers to stay away from. It also warned people to be cautious on beaches between Lyme Regis and Charmouth and to stay clear of Stonebarrow, which was "completely shrouded in mudflows".

■ OTHER shouts during the week included helping two teenage boys on Friday afternoon who had been in the water for two hours after their rubber dinghy had burst.

The lifeboat had just finished a safety routine for the RAF Falcons Parachute Display Team who had landed on the beach.

The boys were spotted through binoculars by 20-year-old crew member Grace Wadsworth. They were clutching the remains of their dinghy and suffering from the cold.

After being rescued the boys were taken by the lifeboat to Seaton where they were met by coastguards from Beer and an ambulance.

Helmsman Brian Street said: "If we had not found them when we did the outcome could have been very different."

Other call-outs included helping a 66-year-old man with leg injuries on Monday night from the Undercliff, and a search early Thursday morning after flashing lights had reportedly been spotted off West Bexington. Nothing was found.

Lifeboat Week ended with two calls on Sunday.

The first call was to a 27 foot yacht which had drifted onto Chesil Beach, 17 miles east of Lyme Regis. No one was on board as the one-man crew had been airlifted to hospital earlier.

The second call on Sunday was to rescue a couple cut off by the tide at Church Cliff Beach in Lyme Regis.

Flood damaged road still closed

■ CLOSED OFF: Colway Lane remains closed because of damage caused by floods (inset)

DORSET County Council will this week be further investigating the cause of a collapse in Colway Lane in Lyme Regis, which has left the road closed for over three weeks.

The lane, used by many residents and as a shortcut around the outskirts of the town, has been closed since the flooding on July 7th. After recently being resurfaced, water ran down the hill for several days following the floods, creating a large pothole and later a collapsed hole in the ground making it dangerous for vehicles to pass.

The county council has carried out preliminary investigations but it is not yet clear whether the collapse was caused by a sewer problem or ground water. If it is the latter, the county council will be responsible for repairs but Wessex Water is responsible for any problems with the sewer.

Dorset County Council could not give a date for when the road would be re-opened. However, a spokesperson said: "We need to get the right machinery and manpower on site this week to investigate further, so that we can fix the problem and reopen the road as soon as possible."

Gig club to host regatta on the Cobb

THE Cobb will become a coliseum to watch 15 Cornish Pilot gig clubs, including world champions from Falmouth, battle it out in a series of demanding sprint races at Lyme Regis Gig Club's rowing regatta on Sunday, August 5th.

As part of Lyme Regis Regatta and Carnival Week, the rowing races will start at 11.30am and include ladies', men's, mixed 16 and under, veterans, and barbarians teams.

The competing clubs include Falmouth, Sidmouth, Torridge, Clevedon, Bristol, Ilfracombe, Appledore, Teignmouth, Barnstaple, Swanage, Portland, Cotehele, Weymouth, Bridport and Lyme Regis.

Operating from Victoria Pool, behind the Marine Aquarium, the racing will be fast, demanding and exhausting as teams are pushed to the limit over a straight line, 1,200-metre course to the east running parallel with the Cobb and Monmouth Beach.

The Cornish Gigs are 32 feet sea rowing boats, built of elm and oak. Each gig has six oarsmen and a cox and are exhilarating to row for fun, to keep fit and in competitions, which are held amongst the 62 clubs in what is the South West's fastest growing sport.

All proceeds will go towards the club's new wooden gig, "Tempest", which will be launched at the Cobb on September 29th.

Merchandise going on sale this month

LIFEBOAT WEEK ANOTHER HUGE SUCCESS FOR RNLI

THIS year's Lifeboat Week has been another great success for the RNLI, as well as the most dramatic on record, with eight emergency call-outs in nine days keeping the crew extra busy.

As temperatures soared for the first time in weeks, huge crowds packed the town. The more spectacular events saw thousands line the seafront, including visits from the RAF Falcons Parachute Display Team and the Red Arrows, who put on an impressive finale to the week of fundraising events.

Chairman of the Lyme Regis and Charmouth RNLI Guild, Rob Michael, said: "It has been another successful year. We were extremely fortunate with the weather given what it was like before."

"Some events were up and some events were down but we think for the bigger events we had more people than ever."

Last year Lifeboat Week raised a record total of £48,000 but Mr Michael

By Francesca Evans
francesca@pemedial.co.uk said he was not expecting to reach this again as it had included some "extraordinary factors".

"However, it will be up there with one of the best normal years," he added.

Mr Michael said that no events were disrupted by the weather and only one or two were disrupted by the amount of times the lifeboat crew was called out.

The total raised is not yet known but volunteers are now counting up takings and the total will be published in the View From Lyme Regis in coming weeks.

Events during the latter half of the week including the Lyme Regis and St George's Twinning Association's annual Admiral Sir George Somers Commemoration Parade and Service. The Mayor of St George's in Bermuda, Kenneth Bascombe, and town crier David Frith, visited the town for the event. The parade was led down Broad Street, along Marine Parade and onto the Cobb for a commemoration service for Lyme's former mayor who colonised the islands of Bermuda following his shipwreck there.

Photos of the parade and service will be featured in next week's View From Lyme Regis.

Other events included the popular Yard of Ale Competition at the Cobb Arms and the traditional Bathtub Race, which saw 18 teams race across the water in homemade rafts, with Lyme Regis Fire Brigade taking first place.

There was plenty for the children, including a beach treasure hunt, sandcastle competition, sand sports, pavement art, a crab fishing competition and teddy bear's picnic in the Marine Parade shelters.

The Nag's Head hosted their popular barbecue with live music and skittles competitions were held on the Slipway each evening.

Boylos watersports shop held windsurfing and stand-up paddle boarding taster sessions, while the lifeboat crew were joined by the RAF Falcons and members of Uplyme and Lyme Regis Cricket Club for an evening match.

Some of the crew's latest recruits helped with a duck race down the River Lim, with hundreds of ducks being sold for the event.

Adults and children took a dip for the swimming race, which was later followed by a grand fireworks display marking the final evening of the week.

As well as the Red Arrows, other events on the final day included a classic car display and the annual fun run around the town.

■ THE RAF Falcons Parachute Display Team (also pictured on page 5) landed on the main beach on Friday afternoon, following a spectacular 12,000 feet jump thanks to clear skies. The jump was watched by thousands on the beach, Marine Parade and in the gardens. After landing, a salute was taken by Group Captain Brian Lavender, from Kilmington, and the team were introduced to the Mayor of Lyme Regis, Councillor Sally Holman, and Mayoress Jane Whittington.

■ THE popular Red Arrows soared over Lyme Bay on Sunday afternoon as a finale to the spectacular week. The aerobatic team flew with seven planes instead of the usual nine following the deaths of pilots Jon Egging and Sean Cunningham. A photo of last year's balloon release, which was held in memory of Flight Lieutenant Egging following his death just weeks after their previous performance, was presented to Squadron Leader Mike Ling at Sunday's display by memorial organiser Becca Overton.

Council approves grants of £15,709 for 19 local causes

LYME Regis Town Council sanctioned grant applications from local organisations and worthy causes totalling £15,709 at a special meeting.

The 19 organisations seeking financial support in the annual hand-out of grants applied for a total of £40,700, the highest sum being requested - £20,000 - coming from the Woodmead Halls Management Committee who are looking into the feasibility of extending their building as was part of the original plan when the halls were built 30 years ago.

The halls have been the main beneficiary from the

by Philip Evans
philip@pemedial.co.uk

council grants over the years with a total of £30,790 being given since the year 2000. During that time, however, the management committee have invested more than £200,000 in improving facilities.

The grants approved were as follows:

ArtsFest - £200 (a collaboration called "Re:collection" with the museum on September 13th); Axe Valley Ring and Ride - £1,200 (provision of community transport); B Sharp - £1,000 (young leadership project); Bridport and District Citizen's Advice Bureau - £2,905 (cost of running the Lyme Regis Outreach station); Gig Club - £750 (purchase of sea skiffs for youth section); Life Education Centres Wessex - £161 (delivery of health and drug-prevention programme at St Michael's Primary School); Lyme Regis Development Trust Community Events - £1,080 (cost of coaches to transport local families on organised trips).

Lyme Regis Development Trust Parent and Toddler Group - £387 (purchase of play equipment); Lyme Regis Development Trust - £1,132 (purchase of equipment, refreshments, cost of hall hire and insurance); Majorettes - £500 (cost of coaches to and from displays and purchase of new pom poms); Operatic Society - £400 (contribution towards next production); Pantomime Society - £300 (purchase of materials for costumes for their February 2013 production); Philpot Museum - £500 (to deliver a business plan); Photographic Club - £60 (purchase of easel and lamp); Taekwondo Club - £402 (purchase of equipment and uniforms).

Uplyme and Lyme Regis Cricket Club - £500 (purchase of artificial wicket); Victim Support (Dorset) - £250 (volunteer training); Woodmead Halls Management Committee - £900 (to carry out investigations for the construction of an extension to the halls); Football Youth Section - £500 (purchase of goal nets, balls and water bottles).

As reported last week, three other projects - the Development Trust Digital Team (purchase of two laptops and two iPads), the Lyme Lunches run by the development trust (purchase of knives, cost of hall hire and training) and LymeNet (project to offer tuition and qualifications for home-educated young people) - each received £430 from the Section 137 grants budget. The three projects had been seeking a total of £6,383.

Lyme Regis Fossil Festival did not claim their 2011 grant of £790 in time and re-submitted their application for consideration but this was not agreed.

Amnesty lobby MP

PICTURED above is the Lyme Regis Amnesty International group lobbying MP Oliver Letwin for a strong Arms Trade Treaty. The UN are currently discussing the details of this treaty which will regulate the sale and transfer of all conventional weapons worldwide. The unregulated sale of arms contributes to human rights abuses, civilian atrocities, and is detrimental to development and increases poverty. A strong treaty will make a level playing field for the sale of arms and is supported by the government and the arms industry. Soldiers will also benefit from this regulation. Pictured are, left to right, John Perkins, MP Oliver Letwin, Chris Boothroyd and Audrey Standhaft.

Lyme news briefs...

Over £60,000 handed to local youth causes

TRUSTEES of Lyme Regis Club for Young People have distributed the last of their funds following the sale of their premises in Church Street, now the home of The Hub.

In all, over £60,000 has been allocated for youth related causes after the second and final tranche of grants. The latest recipients are Lyme Regis Youth Football, Lyme Regis Gig Club (youth section), Lyme Regis Sailing Club (youth section), Uplyme and Lyme Regis Cricket Club (youth section), 1st Lyme Valley Scouts and schoolchildren's Community Holiday Club and Lyme Regis Junior Band.

Annual swing picnic

THE annual Summer Swing and Picnic event will be held in the gardens of Ware House in Lyme Regis on Sunday, August 5th.

This popular event will feature live music from the Three Counties Swing Band in the impressive gardens in Ware Lane, offered as a venue each year by Deputy Lieutenant of Dorset, Minnie Churchill.

The gardens will open from 5pm with the band starting at 6pm. Guests are asked to bring their own picnics.

Ample parking adjacent to Ware House in the private field off Sidmouth Road will be clearly signposted. Tickets cost £10 or £5 for children, available from Lyme Regis Tourist Information Centre or on the gate.

All proceeds will go to the Lyme Regis Organ Appeal fund. If wet, the event will be held in St Michael's Parish Church.

Boat theft at harbour

TWO men were arrested for stealing a boat from Lyme Regis harbour on Wednesday, July 25th.

The men, aged 18 and 22, from Somerset, were spotted by harbourmaster Grahame Forshaw and other harbour users who followed them in another boat.

They were towed back to the harbour where they were arrested by police. They have now been released on bail while further enquiries are carried out.

Panto hoping for big audience

After disappointing audiences for its first two summer shows at the Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis Pantomime Society is looking for a much bigger turn-out for the final performance at the Woodmead Halls.

Curtain up for the variety concert "Broadway A to Z", is at 7.30pm on Saturday, August 4th, and tickets are available at estate agents Fortnam, Smith and Banwell of Broad Street, Lyme Regis.

The annual summer show is produced and directed by mother and daughter duo, Shirley Colley and Tina Paveley, with the main aim being to raise funds towards the cost of the annual pantomime in February.

"Broadway A to Z" features melodies from some of the greatest musicals of all time and was acclaimed as something special by members of the small, but appreciative, July audiences.

"We had wished for better support at the box office, although it is true that the atrocious weather on opening night did not help," said Mrs Colley.

"Now we are hoping that our friends and supporters will turn up trumps for the August show. The cast has worked extremely hard on this production, and I would like to think that their efforts will be rewarded by a packed house.

"We do not set our sights on a large profit - our ticket prices are very reasonable - but a loss on the summer show will be a setback as we strive to keep pantomime alive and kicking in Lyme."

The next Lyme pantomime will be "Dick Whittington". Auditions will take place in September when the society is anxious to recruit more youngsters for the all-important chorus line as well as principals.

Lyme news briefs...

Drunk man arrested for assaulting police

A MAN from Bridport was arrested in Lyme Regis on Wednesday night, following a report over the Shop-watch radio link from the Co-operative regarding a drunk man.

The 26-year-old man was found by police lying on the ground in Langmoor Gardens. He became abusive and violent towards police and was arrested for assaulting a police officer and also under the Section 5 public order.

The man is believed to have been competing in the Yard of Ale competition as part of Lifeboat Week.

■ POLICE would like to remind Lyme Regis residents to be certain before they part with any money in order to reclaim PPI insurance.

Police warned: "If a company is asking for a payment up front before they repay you the PPI money then there is a good chance that it is a scam. Particularly if they are asking for the money to be sent via Western Union or similar money transfer methods.

"If you think you may have a claim for mis-sold PPI then contact the financial institution you believe mis-sold it to you or contact the Citizens Advice Bureau."

Charmouth annual show

CHARMOUTH'S annual Flower Show will this year be held on Saturday, August 11th from 2.30pm in both St Andrew's Community Hall on Lower Sea Lane and the village hall in Wesley Close.

Classes will include flowers, fruit, vegetables, home produce, photography, children's sections and new classes for handicrafts.

The show welcomes all entrants, although fruit and vegetable entrants must be from a 10-mile radius of the village.

Show schedules, including entry forms, are available for just 10 pence from Charmouth Post Office or from the show secretary by calling 01297 560251.

Entry for visitors on the day is 50 pence. All welcome.

Celebrating world peace

□ THE Axminster and District Lions Club has announced winners of their annual international Peace Poster Competition from Mrs Ethelston's Primary School in Uplyme. Those from Uplyme were among 350,000 children from 200 countries who designed posters based on world peace. Winners from Mrs Ethelston's were: 1st Issy Cullimore; 2nd Ben Prosser; 3rd Magenta Williams; highly commended Fleur Gardner-Wray (all pictured below). They will now go on to compete at regional, national and international levels if successful for a cash prize and trip to New York.

Lyme Lympics will go ahead without cuddling the conger

■ FROM PAGE ONE

"Their official grounds for spoilsporting are:

a) That the Lympics did not get road closure permission in Cobb Square, which we didn't in common sense need at 7.30pm after the buses had all stopped, and which a town official had verbally informed us not to worry about.

b) That following the number of fights at the Red Bull event (one bloke was found off the side of the Cobb unconscious in a pool of blood), the police were not confident of being able to deal with 'crowd control' as the G4S foul-up has meant that police have been diverted to Weymouth, leaving just two cops in the town, one a community policeman."

Conger Cuddling was introduced to the Lifeboat Week programme around 30 years ago by former town crier Richard Fox and attracted hundreds of spectators.

It continued as a popular part of Lifeboat Week until 2006 when RNLI Headquarters banned the event following complaints by animal rights activists about using a dead conger.

The Lyme Lympics will kick-off at 4.30pm with the arrival of a very special 'royal' visitor, complete with motorcade and outriders.

The programme of events which goes on until 7.45pm, finishing with an official medals ceremony, will include:

● Children's tug of war – children up to the age of 11 tug of war on the sand.

Children's spade and ball race – children up to the age of 6 balance a ball on a spade racing on the sand.

● Waiters' race – waiters from local hotels and restaurants run with a tray to fill a plastic cup with water from the sea and race back to the finish.

● Motorised fossil race – owners of mobility scooters race along the Cart Road.

● 8-legged race (children and adults) – teams of four are attached to two skis and have to run in co-ordination across the sand.

● Tossing the caber (adults only) – entrants show their strength by tossing a sawn-off caber in the sand.

● Mermaid racing (adults only) – entrants wearing seaweed wigs and standing inside large sacks hop race on the beach.

● Partner jousting (adults only) – Partner A is blindfolded, partner B sits on his/her shoulders holding a beanstick. Partner B must direct A to a line of hanging quoits, hook one off and return to the finish without dropping it.

● Sea steeplechase (adults only) – entrants run from Cobb Gate to the Royal Standard, across the pebbles, along the sand and through a series of obstacles in the sea.

● Nettle eating sprint (adults only) – entrants compete to eat the most raw stinging nettles in three minutes.

Trustee bashing was 'inaccurate, out of order and actionable by law'

■ I HAVE debated long and hard for several days over whether I should dignify, with a response, Glen Willis's quite disgraceful letter to the View From (July 11th) about the Club For Young People's allocation of grants from the sale of its premises in Church Street, Lyme Regis.

I have decided to do so having followed the former Boys' Club saga for some time, during which I have come to have much respect and admiration for the trustees who, I know, have the full support of their national association and who have acted with integrity, complete honesty and within their Charity Commission remit.

To suggest otherwise and to accuse the trustees of a "cloak and dagger" approach is inaccurate, completely out of order and potentially actionable in law.

My understanding is that the trustees have always wanted to see their former premises used for youth work, following the abandonment of a proposed rebuild on a site near the medical centre, and were pleased the county council eventually made money available for the development trust to buy the Church Street headquarters.

Mr Willis appears to be completely unaware of the help and support given by the trustees of the old Boys' Club in the early days before InSPARation became established in its own premises.

The trustees allowed the group free use of their facilities for six months and let the Church Street building go for the ridiculously low knock-down price of £60,000. If that's not being supportive, I don't know what is!

It is also a fact that the trustees always made it quite clear that they would be making grants and who would qualify. There has been no secrecy whatsoever.

Mr Willis makes some ill-informed and inaccurate assertions in his letter, and I would suggest that the former leader of InSPARation, who came under fire for posting inappropriate comments about ex-mayor Michaela Ellis on his Facebook page, is doing the young people's cause no favours by such public rantings.

Perhaps Mr Willis will be writing to the many grateful groups who have received grants expressing his displeasure and questioning their worthiness!

I take my hat off to those loyal trustees - volunteers working for nothing who stuck to their principles in the face of a great deal of criticism and vitriol from the ill-informed.

The Hub has received thousands of pounds from the public purse and must now go on to show that it has all been worthwhile. I wish it luck. But please can we have no more trustee bashing - maligning honourable people and using them as some kind of political football.

John Hounsell, Haye Lane, Lyme Regis

Festival fallout was 'short sighted and greedy'

■ I AM staying here in Lyme with my family as I have done so many times before down through the years; indeed there is no other place we would rather be.

I felt, however, a burning need to correspond with regard to the furore surrounding your local chef Mark Hix and The Cobb Arms. We have friends who live in the town and although I first read about the "fallout" between the above mentioned parties in the Daily Mail, we have been kept up to date with all of this by them and we have to say in layman terms what a farcical nonsense this all is, yet with a brutal twist that could well have ill consequences on all fronts.

As a family we aim to arrive in time for the RNLI's Lifeboat Week and this year we were more than looking forward to seeing Mr Hix and his food demonstrations - not anymore it transpires! We are told the licensee of The Cobb Arms made a formal complaint suggesting that the event would, in some way harm their business. This then led to the Lyme Regis RNLI finding itself in a situation of, shall we say, awkwardness, due we understand to its affiliation with the above mentioned public house.

As we are all aware the Royal National Lifeboat Institution is a national organisation worthy of much support and immense admiration, yet here it is putting personal matters before the ultimate aim and goal which surely must be charity status and getting those collection boxes filled.

Having looked at this years RNLI programme of events it is strikingly obvious that a vast majority of activities and fundraising opportunities take place at the harbour wall end of town. In other words, one must conclude The Cobb Arms and indeed all the businesses at that end achieve high levels of money spenders, enough for them all and then some! In fact, had the food demonstration gone ahead, we would happily have frequented this pub - as in the past - and added to their coffers, like many hundreds of other visitors. A tad short sighted we think, and without doubt totally greedy.

In our view the local lifeboat hierarchy should of insisted the show went ahead and put the charity funded by millions of well meaning people ahead of its association and loyalties of a third party.

What should and must always be paramount is the amount raised for this great cause, not just in Lyme Regis but across the country. One can only hope it is never allowed to happen again.

Sincerely, a disappointed family...

Gerald Clarke, Hertfordshire

No harm in a conger cuddle

■ EVERYBODY Conga!!

*If you want more than a date,
Don't go out with a skate.
They are cold and aloof and unfeeling,
For love to last longer,
You must cuddle a conger,
And discover the true romance of eeling.*

Come on everyone, this is supposed to be a bit of fun. The eel doesn't see it as a bad alternative to bouillabaisse and our children will not be turned into terrorists or bankers if they are exposed to a conger cuddle. Instead of moaning let's enter into the spirit and applaud Lyme's version of of Seb Coe - the man who is bringing the Olympics to town.

Thanks for cream tea fundraiser

■ WE would like to thank once again family and friends for their wonderful help and support in making our cream tea a great success in raising £1,500 for the charity Weldmar Hospice Trust Dorchester.

Many thanks also to Ida for once again for making the celebration fruit cake for our raffle. After all the rain the sun shone for us.

Thank you to all.

August 5th 2012

WHEN VISITING CHARMOUTH FOR THEIR ANNUAL FAYRE AND PARTY IN THE PARK THIS SUNDAY, WHY NOT TAKE A WALK AROUND THE VILLAGE AND HAVE A BROWSE AT THE SHOPS, EATERIES AND SERVICES CHARMOUTH CAN OFFER.

They have everything for your every day needs, great shops for gift ideas, salons, florists, butchers, bakery, places to eat and drink and lots more! There is no need to drive miles to bigger towns when Charmouth has it all!

Welcome to the 21st CHARMOUTH FAYRE!

WELCOME to the 21st Charmouth Fayre, we hope you will have fun and most of all enjoy the delights of an "old village fayre". We try every year to bring in some new stalls, events and bring back old favourites.

Our main events this year are The Sealed Knot, a re-enactment group, and from last year our stilt walker "Jules" (who will entertain young and old all afternoon). Rumour has it that we might have a display from the local "Wyld Morris" team. On top of these new events we will have all our usual stalls and games making a very busy afternoon for all our volunteer helpers. When you need a rest pop down to the tea pavilion for homemade cakes etc, and whilst resting you can listen to a new band to us called "Brass Tracks". Don't be surprised if our local cartoonist, Petra Hughes, stops to draw your caricature.

If this is not enough please remember from 7pm we will be running a barbeque and bar together with live music from "Freddie & The Framed" until 10.30pm when the finale will be a spectacular firework display.

2011 was an average year for the Fayre, we had an extremely good May Bank holiday "Party in the Park" and a weather-affected Fayre day. Unfortunately we were unable to buy the new equipment we needed, however we did manage to donate just over £2,000 to local good causes.

If you are a visitor we hope you enjoy your stay in our village and we hope visitors and locals alike will enjoy our village Fayre. If you have any comments, good or bad, please drop me a line to The Court, The Street, Charmouth, Dorset, DT6 6PE or email on peter@marshall-noel.co.uk.

EVENING BARBEQUE

AT the evening barbeque we are pleased to welcome Freddy and the Framed as our band. Comprising of Chris Bailey on Bass/Vocals, Tony Silversides on Drums, Dave Somers - Guitar/Vocals and Freddie Horton - Lead Vocals.

Chris, Tony and Dave were all members of popular band Raven and have performed together for nine years.

Freddie has performed with established musicians at venues including the Royal Albert Hall and NEC, on one occasion supporting Cher.

We look forward to the great evening of music with them!

BRASS TACKS!

We are also pleased to welcome Brass Tacks who will be playing for you near the Tea Tent on the afternoon

The 'Wyld Morris' men!

WYLD Morris are a recently formed mixed Morris side of dancers and musicians dancing in the Cotswold tradition. The side was born in the autumn of 2010 out of love of the Morris and the lack of a local side that would accept a woman dancer!

If you think you might like to join us as a dancer or musician, we would love to hear from you. We meet on Wednesday evenings at Monkton Wyld Court, Charmouth at 7.30pm. We are learning as we go so you don't need any experience - just an enthusiasm to keep alive our traditional music and dance.

For details of when and where you can see us dancing, look at www.bredy.org.uk/wyld-morris-programme.html.

Business studies students organising Oxjam event

BUSINESS studies students at the Woodroffe School in Lyme Regis are organising a number of live music events, which will form part of the annual Oxjam Music Festival.

The national event, which has been running since 2006, has raised over £1.75 million for Oxfam's work.

Local events will be taking place in several venues around Lyme Regis, including the Marine Theatre, the Marine Parade shelters and at The Hub, over the weekend of October 12th and 13th.

The students are aiming to raise at least £500 and are putting out a request for any local bands, solo artists or DJs who would be willing to take part.

Business studies teacher Martin Banfield said: "This is an incredible opportunity for the students, all of which have never been involved in organising anything on this scale. As well as organising a successful event, which will raise a lot of money for Oxfam, they are also being assessed on it; so what they do will contribute to their final grade."

The 14 students, who are studying event planning as part of their course, are being led by appointed project manager, Sebastian Board.

He said: "This is something that we see as a great challenge. We are really motivated and want to organise something that the people of Lyme will remember and talk about. Hopefully, if all goes well, this could become an annual event in the area."

Plans for the events include an evening of live music at the Marine Theatre, an afternoon of busking and acoustic live music at the Marine Parade shelters, an evening of live music at The Hub, exclusively for under 18s, showcasing young local bands.

For more information or to volunteer to take part as a band or performer, contact Martin Banfield on 01297 442232 or email mbanfield@woodroffe.dorset.sch.uk, or student Joe Bailey on 06jbailey@students.woodroffe.dorset.sch.uk

Judges announce garden winners

LYME Regis Gardens Competition organiser Wendy Alexander and judges Sydie Bones and Paul Dunsford

WINNERS of the annual Lyme Regis Gardens Competition have been announced.

Despite the recent weather, judges said they were "amazed" that there was little sign of adverse conditions among the entrants and that they were "a source of pleasure and inspiration".

Judge Sydie Bones reported that, this year, the category for retired people's gardens proved particularly difficult to judge with so many good entries.

Winners were as follows:

Businesses – 1st Nag's Head, 2nd Cobb Arms, 3rd Harbour Inn.

Retired people's gardens – 1st John Wiscombe, 2nd Peter and Barbara Lacey, joint 3rd Brian Raven and Dodie Hills, 4th Sheila Clarinbold.

Houses – 1st Les Loveridge.

Flats – 1st Jill Douglas, 2nd Judy Cottis, joint 3rd Janet Christopher and Joy Cross.

Patio gardens – 1st Peter and Barbara Lacey.

Group gardens – 1st Cloverdale Court.

Hanging basket and containers – 1st Brian Raven, 2nd

Grahame Forshaw, 3rd Andrew Hodder, 4th Janet Christopher.

Home produce in containers – 1st Jayne Saunders, 2nd Andrew Hodder.

Home produce in containers – 1st Rosie Dean.

Children's home produce – 1st Jayne Saunders Child-care.

Shield for best business – Nag's Head.

Cup for the overall winner – John Wiscombe.

Cup for runners-up – Peter and Barbara Lacey.

Cup for home produce in gardens – Rosie Dean.

Cup for home produce in containers – Jayne Saunders.

Competition organiser Wendy Alexander would like to remind entrants that now is the time to take photographs of their gardens.

"How you have managed it with the weather we have had is miraculous," she added. Photos of gardens, preferably mounted on card or similar, will be displayed at the Presentation Evening when the Mayor of Lyme Regis, Councillor Sally Holman, is expected to present prizes sometime during September.

It's carnival time again!

AUGUST is here already and it's that time of year again when we're asked to join in the spirit of summer - dress in silly outfits, mess around, dance, sing and generally have fun!

Of course, I'm referring to Lyme Regis Regatta and Carnival Week. Now in its 64th year, it has always been a favourite with both locals and visitors alike, with many holidaymakers booking this week especially to take part in the many events.

The week kicks off this Saturday (August 4th) with the usual fun and games for all the family planned over the following nine days.

There will be plenty for all with the opening weekend alone including the popular golf ball derby on Marine Parade, balloon races, a dog show, egg catching competition and entertainment from the Tano Taiko Drummers.

Not forgetting the mar-time side of things - there will also be the sailing club and gig club regattas, children's boat trips and a display from the "Spirit of Loch Fyne" lifeboat.

The opening Saturday will also include the new Carnival Games on the beach - a variety of wacky events including tossing the caper, compact disc throwing and lead shot putt.

The week will really get underway on Monday with one of my favourite carnival events, the Wheeled Derby. One of the more bizarre of Lyme's summertime activities - the Wheeled Derby sees pairs in fancy dress race from the Ship Inn in Coombe Street to the Royal Standard on Marine Parade, one in a wheeled device (e.g. pram or wheelbarrow) and one pushing, both stopping for half a pint at every pub on the way.

It also sees me unsuccessfully chasing after them along the seafront from start to finish. You've got to keep fit for this job... and I'm not!

Other favourite events will include live music, quiz nights, treasure hunts and plenty for the children - sand sports, pavement art, a sandcastle competition, crab catching competition, teddy bear's picnic and junior town crier's competition with our new town crier and Regatta and Carnival Week organiser, Alan Vian.

The evening of Thursday, August 9th will see one of the most spectacular events of the week - the Walk of Light torchlight procession.

All are welcome to carry torches in the procession from the Langmoor Gardens entrance, down Broad Street and onto the Cobb for the price of £3.50. Torches will be on sale from 8.30pm with the parade starting at 9pm.

Of course, the real spectacular of the week in the Grand Carnival Procession itself. Since a real push to get local organisations involved for the carnival's 60th anniversary four years ago (which subsequently ended in a torrential downpour but still a success), the procession has enjoyed a revival in popularity.

To my dismay, Team View are taking a break from joining in the carnival this year (handing out balloons to hundreds of children is harder than it looks!). But I can't encourage others enough to get in the carnival spirit and take part, especially if you've never tried it before.

All are welcome to join in with entrants meeting at Holmbush Car Park on Saturday, August 11th from 6.30pm and moving off at 8pm.

The procession will be followed by live music and a fireworks display on the seafront.

at 5pm

IT'S not just your average holidaymakers that have been soaking up the sun and enjoying Lifeboat Week events in Lyme Regis.

The town has also been visited by a number of celebrities, including Academy Award-winning Hollywood actor, Nicolas Cage.

Mr Cage has starred in over 60 films, including "Con Air", "The Rock" and "Gone in 60 Seconds". He is one of Hollywood's highest paid actors, earning $40 million in 2009.

He was spotted in Hix Oyster and Fish House and later at the Royal Standard enjoying a break, reportedly with his wife Alice Kim and their son, Kal-El, for their wedding anniversary.

Earlier in the week, actress Lynda Bellingham, known for playing the Oxo Mum in the 1980s adverts and as a star on "Loose Women", was filming in and later cooked a meal for them.

Former England manager Peter Taylor was also reportedly spotted in the town during Lifeboat Week.

Painter Trish Hayman says 'it's in my genes'

■ IN a series of interviews leading up to Lyme Regis ArtsFest 2012 (September 8th to 16th), Anthea Simmons introduces readers to some of the local people involved in the tenth annual festival. This week she meets Trish Hayman, whose exquisitely detailed paintings of flora and fauna have attracted a growing host of admirers.

● WHAT is the story of your involvement in the arts?
I suppose it must be in the genes. My father was an accomplished amateur artist, mainly portraits in pastel. He was exceptionally observant, brilliant really, but I got no encouragement from him whatsoever for my own efforts.

I was away at boarding school for much of my childhood - my parents were in the Middle East and I really excelled at art but no one thought to push me towards art school to study textile and pattern-making, my passion at the time.

I went into advertising as a secretary in London in the mid 1960s and ended up working for Lord Ashcroft as his PA. I wasn't painting at all then and didn't make any art until we escaped London for the Dorset countryside in 1987.

I went to an adult education class in pen and ink drawing in Dorchester whilst my little ones were at school. Then I did botanical illustration for two years with the most fantastic tutor, Doreen Fox-Robinson, and I thought: "This is it! This is where my forte lies."

I realised that I had picked up on my father's observational skills and that I really enjoyed reproducing the beautiful details I could see in a flower or a butterfly's wing.

I started to sell pieces locally so that when we moved to Lyme Regis 10 years ago, I was really ready to show some work more publicly.

I wish my father could have seen my work. I think he would have been proud of me.

I was a bit disappointed not to get accepted for this year's RA Summer Exhibition, but I did get into the "NOT the Summer Exhibition" show in Waterloo and my work sold.

● WHAT are your sources of inspiration?

I have been helped enormously by Christine Allison; her mentoring groups have given me so much confidence and my work had improved as a result of her guidance.

My main source of inspiration is, unsurprisingly, nature. I go for walks with my head down, on the lookout for new subject matter whether it be a plant, an insect or a fallen feather. I also love old botanical books and I go to any exhibitions or auctions that feature botanical illustration.

● WHICH is your favourite gallery and what work of art would you like to own?

I love the National Portrait Gallery, not least because it has just about the best restaurant in London on the roof! I also love Slader's Yard at West Bay and the new Marle Gallery in Axminster. Both are lovely spaces.

When it comes to owning pieces, I would love a Geoffrey Robinson. His work combines a degree of abstraction with wonderful botanical detail. I would also love to have a piece by local ceramicist, Amanda Popham. I enjoy her humour as well as admiring the craftsmanship.

● HOW did you get involved in ArtsFest?

We moved to Lyme Regis just before the very first ArtsFest. I met Hugh Dunford-Wood and heard all about the plans for the event and wanted to be involved but all the places on the Art Trail had gone. Somehow, I managed to get a space in a solicitor's window and sold two paintings on the first day! I've been involved ever since.

● WHAT are you looking forward to at this year's ArtsFest?

The Postal Art competition in the Lister Room. I hope we can match the standard of the Barfleure competition, which will also be on display.

■ THE Croatian Olympic sailing team were given a tour of the town when they visited Lyme Regis last week, thanks to Tukxi - the tukxi taxi.

Tukxi owner Dennis Spacey drove the three-man team around the town, stopping for a drink at the Hix Oyster and Fish House on Cobb Road and an ice cream at the Town Mill Cheesemonger.

They were also taken to the Cobb, along Marine Parade and visited a fossil shop, whilst also posing for photographs with visitors.

The team will be taking part in the Olympic sailing events at Weymouth.

Chris Rudge Renewables

RECENT Government announcements have now firmed up the future of Solar PV Feed in Tariff's (FIT). The 21p FIT rate will continue into June, you'll need to obtain an EPC certificate declaring your premises are at Energy Band D or better to qualify for the full 21p rate.

Rudge Renewables, are offering their customers a 'Get Your D for Free' offer, providing a EPC survey and certificate at no cost, which will be valid not only for a PV system after April 1st, but any other renewable technology you may want to install later!

Solar panel prices are continuing to fall, and further price drops are anticipated right through the year, making Solar PV very attractive with Return on Investment at 10% or more for southerly facing roofs. Remember though that Feed in Tariffs are due to drop again in July to a lower level, so an early installation will ensure you earn the current FIT rate.

In addition, the Government have announced an extension to the popular Renewable Heat Prepayment scheme which is offering cash payments for people installing Solar Hot Water, Heat Pumps, and Biomass (wood burning) boilers to replace fossil fuels.

Rudge Renewables are able to provide free surveys for Solar PV, Solar Thermal, Wind Turbines, Heat Pumps and Wood chip/pellet installations. With over 5 years of experience installing renew-ables plus an expertise in battery backed systems for customers with no mains power connection. Installation costs are always kept as low as possible for local customers.

Rudge Renewables can be found on 01297 306114 or www.chris-rudge.co.uk

SouthWest Eco Systems

SOUTHWEST Eco System's brand new purpose-built renewable showroom, the first of its kind in the area, will incorporate many working displays and a wide range of woodburning stoves; this coupled with on-hand guidance from the knowledgeable staff will provide customers with the ability to better understand the increasing range of renewable technologies on offer.

Renewable energy will become a major factor in addressing the issues of rising fuel costs, global warming and the fact that the country as a whole needs a sustainable energy supply.

The showroom at Gore Cross will be open Monday-Friday 9am-5pm, and Saturday mornings 9am-12.

Malabar Trading

IF you're looking for unique and unusual items for your home then pay a visit to Malabar Trading. The latest shipment to arrive consists of household textiles in a blue and white print. There are duvet covers and matching pillowcases, cotton-filled quilts, bedspreads, cushion covers, tablecloths and napkins. These textiles have been made exclusively for Malabar Trading from Indian cotton and printed by hand.

Later in the week there will be more goods arriving in a 'white on white' print, unbleached cotton with a white block print. The tie-top curtains that are made with this print are extremely versatile and there are several different prints in both voile and cotton. There will also be duvet covers, quilts and bedspreads.

The colourful cotton dhurries in the photograph are a hardwearing and practical floor covering. There is also a selection of unusual Turkish kilims.

Also from Turkey the cotton hammam towels are ever popular, useful for travelling as well as a good alternative in the bathroom as they are absorbent and quick to dry.

There is a large selection of cotton nightwear, clothing and also silver jewellery from India and much much more.

We don't just teach boat building...

Sam Friend an ex-business travel agent, enjoyed woodworking at school but didn't think to pick up a chisel again until she came on the 8 week Woodworking Skills course. She gained a City & Guilds certificate and designed and made the occasional table pictured. She is now hooked, haunting auctions for tools. The children now have a woodworking mum.

Jack Pammenter worked at a large UK retail company but decided to retrain. On the 8 week course he designed and built the chest of drawers pictured and gained his City & Guilds certificate.

He worked for a timber frame house builder on a range of jobs and is now using his skills in Australia renovating houses.

Our courses are intensive and hands-on:

- 8 week 'Woodworking Skills'
- 5 day 'Basic Woodworking'
- 5 day 'Chair Making'

Change for the better with hypnotherapy

FEELING bad? Feeling trapped by unwanted habits or old hurts? With the right help, your mind can set you free. And much more easily than you might have thought possible.

You probably already know how powerful your subconscious mind can be when it's repeating old habits even though you don't want it to. So imagine that much power working for you in a good way instead.

Susan Gale, of the Beltain Centre in Dorchester, uses Hypnotherapy to help you break out of the rut and change old negatives to new positives.

Don't "learn to live with it" – learn to live without it.

Susan has been working as a hypnotherapist since 1989 and has helped many people clear many different problems. Her experience can help you break free. Take a look at her website:

www.beltain.co.uk or phone her on 01305 267069 to see how she could help you.

Indulge in our designer fashions for spring and complement your outfit from our range hats, bags, wraps and stunning jewellery. Sizes from 10 to 14.

Sailing from Bristol

2013 will see an inaugural series of cruises out of Bristol Avonmouth by British-operated Ocean Countess. Experience 'traditional, smaller-ship cruises', where the emphasis is on a friendly atmosphere, good food and first-class entertainment on board, while taking in interesting ports of call from which shore excursions are offered. This is what we have on offer on board Ocean Countess – and at superb value prices too!

The ship will be offering six widely varying itineraries, from five to twenty-eight nights' duration, as well as a season-ending overnight 'Taster' cruise to Liverpool. The series begins in some style, with a month-long, winter-warming voyage to the Caribbean – and the mid-Atlantic Azores. This is followed in mid-March by a cruise beyond the Arctic Circle in search of the fabled Northern Lights, an Eastertime 'Iberian Odyssey' to some delightful cities in Spain and Portugal, and an April journey to Western Norway's spectacular fjords. A 'Springtime Gardens' cruise and a week-long 'Celtic Landscapes' voyage complete the ship's programme from the West Country port.

We look forward to the pleasure of your company!

The Manfreds Anniversary Tour at Bridport Arts Centre

TOP British Band The Manfreds are heading to Bridport Arts Centre as part of their 50th Anniversary Celebration Tour.

Original Manfred Mann members Paul Jones, Mike Hugg and Tom McGuinness, are joined by Rob Townsend, Marcus Cliffe and Simon Currie as the exciting new line-up of The Manfreds, featuring both lead singers from the 1960s band. Since Manfred Mann formed in 1962, they have firmly secured their place in the history books of British popular and R&B music.

They'll be playing from their greatest hits list which includes '5-4-3-2-1', 'Just Like A Woman', 'Do Wah Diddy', 'Come Tomorrow', and 'The Mighty Quinn', plus individual hits including 'Hightime', 'I've been a Bad Bad Boy' (Paul Jones), and 'Handbags & Gladrag's' (Mike d'Abo composition).

Programme Manager, Margie Barbour said: "Since seeing them play in Putney when I was 14 I have been a fan of their music and was delighted when I heard they could squeeze us in to their busy schedule before going on to play at Cowes. It will be a seated gig now as many of us now are feet-tappers rather than full out rock-and-rollers - but there will be room at the sides for some of us to jiggle along, but no rushing the stage this time!"

The all seated event will take place on Thursday, August 16th, 8pm. Tickets are £19/£18 members in the balcony and £17/£16 members seated downstairs. Call Bridport Arts Centre box office on 01308 424204 for more information.

Arts Centre to celebrate 50 years

Busy few months ahead for Bridport's Ergo Phizmiz

EARLY August sees Bridport-based artist, collagist, writer, film-maker and composer Ergo Phizmiz performing the one man show "Queen of Names" at Riverside Studios, London, as part of the acclaimed Tete-a-Tete: The Opera Festival, as well as appearing in Elvis Herod's "Mike the Headless Chicken" opera. He has also composed a short opera "Caring in the Community", on a subject very close to his heart: dreadful, angry neighbours.

These performances are preceded by the second of the local night "IF", created with Bridport artists Lee Gerrard & Simon Mathewson, in which "Mike the Headless Chicken" will be previewed. These nights are parties of experimental entertainment taking place in people's living rooms. A marching-band through Bridport town is promised... Anybody wishing to attend this event must either find the marching-band, or contact ifhouseparties@gmail.com

Between August 18-20 Bethnal Green in London becomes the setting for Ergo's augmented theatre piece "The Grinder", created in collaboration with Joel Cahen of NewToy Productions. This is an adventure story about a giant beast that sits in the middle of the internet, eating our memories and thoughts, and a successful attempt by hackers to lock the beast down.

From September 5th the Vidy Theatre in Lausanne, Switzerland, sees the opening of "The Old Man of the Mountain", an electromechanical puppet opera by Les Anticlastes Marionettes, with whom Ergo worked in June at La Chaussee in central France creating elements of the music score. This production will play additionally as part of the International Mime Festival in January 2013 in London, as part of an international tour.

October sees the release of the DVD "Keystone Cut-Ups" on American label Illegal Art. Created in collaboration with renowned collagist People Like Us, it is a manic cut-up of early silent comedy cinema and early avant-garde cinema, drawing the parallels between the two to an original score.

Also during October is the premiere broadcast of Ergo's multilingual radioplay "Conversations With Birds" on German radio station Bayerischer Rundfunk (also available to listen online after the broadcast). This piece, along with his 2011 radioplay "Disappearing Boxes", has been nominated for this year's prestigious Karla-Sczuka prize for radio-art.

November sees the release of his latest album of song-writing "Eleven Songs" on London/New York record label Care in the Community.

He is currently working on a new electronic opera "Gargantua", for which he just received funding from the PRS Foundation, which tours the UK in March 2013 and also involves local artists Martha Moopette and Nicky Mathewson.

So - busy times ahead! Full information and updates are available on his website at www.ergophizmiz.net

Poetry for Pleasure

by Frank McGarry

FOR my birthday recently, a friend gave me the latest of several anthologies edited by the TV producer and writer, Daisy Goodwin. It is entitled "Essential Poems for Britain" and is a mixture of old and new, the famous and the less well-known. There are over a hundred poems in the collection. Here are just two of them. This verse by Sir John Betjeman wasn't written with the Lyme Regis Golf Club in mind, but it could have been.

SEASIDE GOLF

How straight it flew, how long it flew,
It clear'd the rutty track
And soaring, disappeared from view
Beyond the bunker's back -
A glorious, sailing, bounding drive
That made me glad I was alive.

And down the fairway, far along
It glowed a lonely white;
I played an iron sure and strong
And clipp'd it out of sight,
And spite of grassy banks between
I knew I'd find it on the green.

And so I did. It lay content
Two paces from the pin;
A steady putt and then it went
Oh, most surely in.
The very turf rejoiced to see
That quite unprecedented three.

Ah! Seaweed smells from sandy caves
And thyme and mist in whiffs,
In-coming tide, Atlantic waves
Slapping the sunny cliffs,
Lark song and sea sounds in the air
And splendour, splendour everywhere.

In WWII Captain Hamish Blair, RN, was posted to Scapa Flow and seems not to have been over-impressed by the Orkneys.

BLOODY ORKNEY

This bloody town's a bloody cuss
No bloody trains, no bloody bus,
And no one cares for bloody us
In bloody Orkney.

The bloody roads are bloody bad,
The bloody folks are bloody mad,
They'd make the brightest bloody sad,
In bloody Orkney.

All bloody clouds, and bloody rains,
No bloody kerbs, no bloody drains,
The Council's got no bloody brains,
In bloody Orkney.

Everything's so bloody dear,
A bloody bob, for bloody beer,
And is it good? - no bloody fear,
In bloody Orkney.

The bloody 'flicks' are bloody old,
The bloody seats are bloody cold,

You can't get in for bloody gold
In bloody Orkney.

The bloody dances make you smile,
The bloody band is bloody vile,
It only cramps your bloody style,
In bloody Orkney.

No bloody sport, no bloody games,
No bloody fun, the bloody dames
Won't even give their bloody names
In bloody Orkney.

Best bloody place is bloody bed,
With bloody ice on bloody head,
You might as well be bloody dead,
In bloody Orkney

Later, in retaliation, the locals added a final verse of their own:

Captain Hamish "Bloody" Blair
Isna posted here nae mare
But no-one seems to bloody care
In bloody Orkney.

Maggie Reeday at 115 Club

115 Club, Bridport's dedicated music & dinner venue last week enjoyed a fabulous performance of blues & jazz by the spectacular Edana Minghella, Mick Smith & Pete Maxfield. Edana's voice was stunning, her presence enchanting, and the professional support of Mick Smith on Keyboard & Pete Maxfield on Double Bass made for an enthralling evening.

On Thursday, August 2nd, 115 Club have a wonderful duo of Maggie Reeday and Philip Clouts set to perform their combo of Jazz inspired by African & Latin influences. Beautiful jazz standards combined with Philip's natural talent on the keyboard and Maggie's gentle vocals are set to make a fabulous evening to enjoy.

Maggie is regarded as one of the countries finest vocalists, appearing on both TV & radio, with her "smokey" voice, lending itself perfectly to the blues & and more soulful jazz, should guarantee a fun evening of engaging music. Paired up with Philip Clouts an accomplished band leader & founding member of Zubop, that raised the roof at Ronnie Scotts. Clouts swings with rhythmic deliberation and a crystal sense of phrasing, setting a beautiful ivory accompaniment, using his roots to infuse the jazz standards with African & Latin moods.

Pre-booking for dinner between 7:00pm and 8:00pm is essential and guests should telephone on the day (between 2:00 and 6:00pm) to confirm numbers in their party. At which time they will be informed of the cover charge - anticipated at between £5 and £10 per guest. Unfortunately late-comers cannot be accommodated as dining must be completed before the music starts at about 9:00pm.

For more information check out www.115club.com or www.facebook.com/115club

The Rime of the Ancient Mariner

THE bunting is up, the tables have been laid and the guests are arriving. The scene is set for the wedding of the century. But who is that strange old man in the corner with the far-away look in his eye?

Join Shanty Theatre Company on an epic voyage

*"Water, water everywhere,
And all the boards did shrink,
Water, water everywhere,
Nor any drop to drink"*

with this entirely new re-imagining of the nautical classic, with storms, holy hermits, a ghostly galleon, silly sailors, live original music and an albatross with a passion for five-a-side football.

Shanty Theatre Company has turned this well-known tale upside down and given it a good shake to see what comes out of its pockets.

Expect music, japes and a darn good yarn for all the family.

Shanty Theatre Company is Supported by the National Lottery through Arts Council England, and West Dorset District Council.

For more details on the show see the advert to the right.

Small Things

Creative arts workshops in Bridport this week

SMALL Things creative arts workshops take place this week today (Wednesday 1st), Thursday 2nd and Friday, August 3rd, and are based around the theme of Sea and Air.

Small Things takes place at Bridport Arts Centre, The Community Orchard and Waterstone's bookstore and is for children aged 3 - 8 years. It will be a colourful and fun week of creative play for children, who just need to bring their imagination!

Workshops include 'Up and Away!' with puppeteer Alison McGowan and Alex Finnigan, and make a collage at 'Commotion

In The Ocean' - and see it exhibited in the Waterstone's window.

At 'Teapots and Tentacles' you can make a sensational sea creature puppet to take to the party, and on Friday look out for more fun workshops like 'Mission Swimpossible' (drama with Tessa Bide), 'Take Flight' (dance with Nikki Northover) and 'The Octopus Rap' (singing with Sammy Hurden). There will be lots of creative fun!

To book call in to Bridport Arts Centre or call the box office on 01308 424204

Small Things is co-ordinated by Nikki Northover with sessions led by members of the Summerthing team of artists and is supported by Bridport Arts Centre, West Dorset District Council, Bridport Lions, Brit Valley Rotary, Amsafe and The Rex Trevett Appeal Fund.

Rising star pupil joins tutor for church concert

THE fifth of the series of Sunday afternoon concerts at Lyme Regis parish church is to be given by the well known local musician Nicholas Brown (flute and piano) and one his pupils, Keir Lewis (violin and piano). Keir, aged 13, is rapidly becoming recognised as a rising star, a brilliant performer on both his instruments, and receiving standing ovations from those lucky enough to have heard him. Nicholas and Keir will include some light-hearted music, including pieces by Nicholas himself along with Mollenhauer's "The Boy Paganini" and Clebanoff's "Millionaire's Hoe-Down". The concert starts at 3.30pm on Sunday August 5th.

Fun for all the family at Loders Church Fete

FOR many years the Loders Fete has been held on the first Saturday in August in the grounds of Loders Court by kind permission of Lord and Lady Hood. It is a lovely setting and nearby the Church which will be opened and there will be someone at hand to tell about the very interesting history.

The entertainment all afternoon is by the popular Lads - Jigsaw James and Jambo. There are lots of stalls including the deli, cakes and the silent auction. The ever-popular fancy dress for children has increased prizes of £10 for first, £5 for second and £3 for third. The grand draw has great prizes too including £200 first prize, £100 for second and £50 for third, plugs many more. There will also be the opportunity for tug-of-war teams to enter, and a bar will be in attendance.

The proceeds go to the church, which quite recently, has had the lead removed on a bright moonlight night from the Lady Chapel Roof. However, some donations will be given the Loders Youth Organisations.

Parking is free and people are asked to park their cars in the places provided. The road is very busy at the time of year with huge tractors carrying big bales and the local bus service.

THE FLOWERS OF WAR <sup>15</sup>

IN 1937 China, during the second Sino-Japanese war, a mortician, John (Christian Bale) arrives at a Catholic church in Nanjing to prepare a priest for burial. Upon arrival he finds himself the lone adult among a group of convent girl students and prostitutes from a nearby brothel. When he finds himself in the unwanted position of protector of both groups from the horrors of the invading Japanese army, he discovers the meaning of sacrifice and honour.

DIARY OF A WIMPY KID: DOG DAYS <sup>U</sup>

SCHOOL is out and Greg is ready for the days of summer, when all his plans go wrong. What on earth is he going to do all summer?

Stars Zachary Gordon as Greg, Robert Capron and Devon Bostick.

SOUND OF MY VOICE <sup>15</sup>

A JOURNALIST and his girlfriend get pulled in while they investigate a cult whose leader claims to be from the future.

Stars Christopher Denham, Nicole Vicius and Brit Marling.

THE REVEREND <sup>18</sup>

Fresh from seminary school a new Reverend embarks on his first parish. A small, low maintenance Chapel based in the quiet idyllic setting of a quiet country village. While on the surface the village seems to be a peaceful parish, with perfect residents, soon it becomes apparent that something more sinister lurks beneath the façade of a local businessman. On a wet, cold night a mysterious girl visits The Reverend at the chapel. Cold and upset she is welcomed in warmly, soon it becomes apparent that her visit is not for sanctuary but to deliver a message, a message in the form of a deep, bloody bite... Awoken with an unknown, uncontrollable thirst a confused Reverend can find no evidence of the girl from the night before, with nothing but the thirst and memory of the bite, The Reverend embarks on his mandate, to clean up the village and the neighbouring estate, by preaching or feasting...

Low-budget horror starring Stuart Brennan, Tamer Hassan and Rutger Hauer

Frank Property cuts the cost of selling!

Frank Property offers a standard fee of 0.95%* Frank will not be compromising on their high standards and service levels. So now you really can get more for less.

- The highly competitive fee Frank is now offering is typically only offered by online agents. Frank believes it is incredibly important to put a face to the name; always priding themselves on being available for their customers, providing them with an excellent service and a highly competitive fee.
- Frank is currently not charging VAT on their fees.
- Frank does not tie you in to a long contract; confident with their service they provide, they do not ask customers to sign a long three month contract; but instead only require 48 hours notice.

- Their office is open 7 days a week: this is very important in a coastal town as some buyers come from outside the area and visit at the weekend.
- All property viewings, even out of office hours, are accompanied by a member of the Frank team. They take time with the buyer in your home, providing them with that all important feedback
- For every property Frank Property markets, they will provide you with all the marketing tools you need, both printed and online; a high quality sales brochure which includes great photography and, most importantly, a floor plan. It's a fact, buyers love floor plans!
- An internet presence for your property is very important – a big investment has gone into their website and as a result it's getting huge visitor numbers each month. Social media presence is a given and lots of interesting, relevant topics for buyers and sellers are featured on facebook, twitter and the like. They are also attached to most of the important property internet portals.
- It doesn't end there, once Frank has 'sale agreed' your property they are then with you all the way through to completion; ensuring regular communication – and regular updates. Of all their sales since opening they have consistently achieved an average of 93% of the asking price.
- Put Frank Property to the test - give them a call or pop into the office and arrange your free no obligation appointment. They cover all areas; including Seaton and Beer, Colyton and Colyford and Lyme Regis, Uplyme and all the surrounding villages.

WEST BAY - £300,000

HOLLOWAY Estate Agents are pleased to offer this unique detached bungalow of conventional construction situated at West Bay Jurassic Coastal Village.

The Accommodation comprises Reception Hall, Fitted Kitchen, Living Room with triple aspect windows, Three bedrooms and family Bathroom. Outside there are delightful gardens and a Garage. The property has been well maintained and is being offered with no forward chain. Ideal for those persons seeking an easily managed coastal bungalow.

It is being offered in the region of £300,000.

For further information or to arrange a viewing please contact Holloway Estate Agents 01308 422121 or visit the website www.e-holloway.co.uk

CHARMOUTH - OIEO £385,000

SITUATED in a sought after location, on the hill overlooking Charmouth and Lyme Bay this cottage is in a quiet cul de sac and has been REFURBISHED to a high standard, sympathetic to its' ARTS AND CRAFTS roots.

The property benefits from two DOUBLE bedrooms, High VAULTED ceilings in the living areas, a stunning CONSERVATORY with VIEWS of GOLDEN CAP, the JURASSIC COAST and the SEA. A multifuel STOVE in the living area, provides a wonderful focal point and the conservatory is a joy to behold. With the added benefit of a boarded loft space, with a velux balcony window overlooking the bay. This really is a superb opportunity, re-available only after a previous purchaser was found to be unable to proceed.

For more information please call Bridgman & Speak Estate Agents on 01308 888111

Briefly comprises:

- Fully Refurbished
- 2 Double Bedrooms
- 2 Reception Rooms
- Fitted Kitchen
- Large Conservatory
- Vaulted Ceilings
- Views of Golden Cap & The Jurassic Coast
- Multifuel Stove
- Garage and Parking

THORNCOMBE - £348,500

The Old Forge is a very surprising property offering characterful accommodation on a much larger scale than you would think from viewing the front.

The well presented accommodation provides three bedrooms, bathroom, lounge with wood burning stove, dining room, large family kitchen/diner, study/bedroom 4, ground floor shower room and utility room. Above the kitchen is a large loft space which could be converted to provide further accommodation if required or a self contained annexe (subject to any necessary consents). Outside there is a pretty courtyard immediately behind the property, with a large stone outhouse and shed for storage which then leads on to a delightful walled cottage garden and parking area.

This is a lovely property situated right in the heart of the thriving village of Thorncombe in West Dorset with lovely walks all around and in catchment for the Woodroffe

School.

The property has undergone a great deal of improvement in recent years including: Rewiring (2008), installation of electric heating system, new roof to dining room, rebuilt chimney stacks, installed wood burning stove and liner, landscaped garden, fitted shower room, redecoration and general maintenance. We believe the property was built around mid 1700s as one of two forges for the village (the village then being a large settlement). Where the current study sits, was once the horse entrance - the kitchen being the forge itself. There are plenty of walks available from the doorstep and the famous Forde Abbey and gardens is just a mile down the road.

The property is offered for sale with an asking price of £348,500. For further information or to book a viewing please call Gordon & Rumsby on 01460 30888.

Free MOT with a Saab fixed-price service

SAAB Parts UK and its national network of Authorised Service Centres are pleased to offer all Saab owners a complimentary MoT in conjunction with an Oil or Annual service booked in August or September.

For a limited period, Saab owners can take advantage of improved customer value fixed-price services from £129 and qualify for a complimentary MoT. All owners need to do is register on-line with Saab Service Club.

Free to all Saab owners, Saab Service Club is a loyalty scheme that provides a host of exclusive benefits, including free visual health checks, discounts on parts, servicing and Saab accessories. To register and claim a complimentary MoT test, simply visit www.saabserviceclub.co.uk enter your details, select your nearest Saab Service Centre and download the MoT voucher. Existing members can download the voucher directly by entering their membership number where requested.

All Saab fixed-price services are carried out by factory trained technicians, who have the experience and expertise to maintain customers' cars in the best mechanical condition, and use Saab Genuine Parts that are covered by a two-year parts and labour warranty.

Saab was recently rated as a top four best performer in an analysis of MoT pass rates undertaken by consumer motoring champion, honest john.co.uk, reinforcing Saab's legendary reputation for durability, reliability and build quality. The analysis of 24.5 million MoT records revealed an average of 84% of Saabs registered in 2008 passed their MoT, against a national average of 80%.

David Leighton, Business Development

Manager at Saab Parts UK, said: "At Saab we are continually looking at ways to provide Saab customers with improved value services. With an extensive national network of 89 Authorised Service Centres, we want to ensure that Saab owners can keep their Saabs in perfect running order with the best quality and value maintenance packages developed through the Saab Service Club."

For more information on the Saab Service Club and to register for free as a member, visit www.saabserviceclub.co.uk.

UPLYME & LYME REGIS CRICKET

FRANCIS CLARK DEVON CRICKET LEAGUE E Division

UPLYME came off the better against Uptontery on Saturday, taking 16 points to their opponents' four. Uplyme batted first and the opening partnership of Mark Batey and Robert Thom put on 156 runs before Thom was caught on 110.

All four of the Uplyme player who had a bat did well, with Mark Batey hitting 53, Steve Batey getting an unbeaten half century and Ashley Caddy 40 not out. Uplyme declared after 45 overs on 263-2.

Although the bowlers consistently took wickets throughout the Uptontery innings, with Rodney Holmes picking up figures of 3-35 and Caddy 2-34, Uptontery still had three wickets left after their 47 overs to leave Uplyme with the winning draw.

Uplyme & Lyme Regis 1st XI (16pts) 263 for 2 dec drew with Uptontery 1st XI (4pts) 152 for 7; Uplyme remain top

2nd XI D Division (East)

UPLYME 2nds crashed to a second consecutive defeat after only scraping together eight players for their mid-table clash with Uptontery 2nds.

The Uptontery wicket proved to be ideal for batting track as only three wickets fell in the game.

Batting first Uplyme got off to a good start when Eddie Clarke (39) and Rhys Davies put on 58 for the first wicket, before the former was bowled by A Pulman (1-19).

In stepped Henry Perry (29) who helped put on 47 for the second wicket before being bowled by N Wyatt (1-20).

But it was the unbeaten partnership of 107 runs for the third wicket that saw Tyler Wellman (45) and Rhys (69) secure their highest batting figures for the seconds.

But the visitors' 212 failed to prove defensible as eight-man Uplyme battled in the field to halt the hosts' progress.

Openers M Arscott (113no) and N Wyatt plundered Uplyme's attack in a 206 run partnership - last year the top opening pair put on 193 in the D Division (East) division.

Only 13-year-old Rhys snagged a wicket when his lbw appeal was upheld with the hosts' seven runs shy of their target. In stepped F Drew (4no) to finish the game of in the 31st over.

Uptontery 2nd XI (16 pts) 213-1, who remain in fourth place with 144 pts, beat Uplyme 2nd XI (5pts) 212-2, who drop a place to sixth with 126pts, by nine wickets

BRIDPORT FC

Bees kick-off on Saturday

NEW SEASON BEGINS AT BARNSTAPLE ON AUGUST 4TH

BRIDPORT start the new season with a trip to Barnstaple Town following a summer of indecision and interruptions.

Despite this manager Trevor Senior is staying focussed on the new campaign saying: "It has been very disjointed with preseason friendlies being cancelled because of the weather and teams double booking, and a couple of blows personnel wise, but we just have to deal with it."

Playing competitive games, albeit friendlies, have been a nightmare, with the first against Chard Town postponed because St Mary's Field and unfortunately the Beehive was under water following torrential rain.

The match against Lymington then had to be switched to the Hampshire club's training ground, as did the proposed home game with Portland United which was played at Redlands.

Visitors Hillingdon Borough cancelled as most of the team suddenly left the club, and although they finally got a home game, and first victory, against a Plymouth Argyle XI, Bournemouth Poppies cancelled on the morning of last Saturday's match because they couldn't raise a side as six of the team were on a stag weekend!

The lead up therefore has not been ideal particularly as Senior was looking to play an alternative 4-4-2 formation this season on occasions and was hoping to test its suitability pre-season.

"The disruption hasn't helped, but it would appear from the personnel we have at the club at the moment 3-5-2 suits us better, although it puts extra work on the wingbacks."

Senior has also been disappointed so far with his attempts to add to his squad, which has been hit by the news that the club's only fit striker Tom Richardson has been hit by a mystery virus that has seen him receive medical attention in a London hospital for two weeks. Although it appears the virus has been identified, it is believed it will take at least two months for him to make a full recovery with probably another month to return to full fitness.

Already missing Sam Charles until the New Year, Senior has been experimenting by using utility player Matt Condliffe up front alongside Ben Clarke, who stepped up from the reserves at the end of last season and showed good form.

They appear to be working quite well, and may be the answer to Senior's problems.

"They played well together against Plymouth with Matty scoring a couple of goals, and although there is good news having spoken to Sam last week, who says he is a month ahead of schedule, he still won't be back until January," said Senior.

Unfortunately The Bees have lost out on the signature of Alex Halloran who has decided to join Hamworthy United, whilst Simon Baines - who is currently recovering from an injury sustained playing for Poole Town - is still hopeful that the Dolphins will offer him a deal.

"He wants to play as high as he can and I can understand that, but he would be a good acquisition," said Senior.

It is not all doom and gloom however. Shane Evans has decided to commit himself to the club after looking to move away, and although Dan Peart had announced he was signing for Wimborne, Senior persuaded him to play against Plymouth where he excelled and scored a goal.

"I hope he will stay. He certainly looked like the old Dan we knew when he joined and has got his appetite back. He is injury free and looked good," Senior said.

The former Reading striker also confirmed that he had signed Dorchester Town's Sam Buckler on Western League forms. The central defender also played against Argyle and did well.

He has also signed striker Jamie Filkins, the brother of keeper Sam, and he has shown some good touches in the pre-season matches.

Senior is also trying to sign another goalkeeper as back up to Filkins.

"Lee Cleal is troubled by a knee injury and Jamie Fry wants to play outfield, so I need a reserve team keeper who can understudy Sam, but it is proving a bit difficult at the moment."

LYME REGIS GOLF

Club pro Duncan makes it to Golf Monthly's top 100

LYME GOLF PROFESSIONAL

LYME Regis Golf Club professional, Duncan Driver, has been rewarded for his stalwart efforts in the club and with the county's Junior Academy by being nominated as one of the top 100 professionals in the country.

The award, made by Golf Monthly magazine, recognises his work in the club's Junior Academy and in his role as the lead professional with the county's Junior Academy.

Under his tuition and guidance Lyme now boasts a significant number of single figure junior golfers, some of whom have gone on to achieve a handicap of scratch or better.

Forty-one-year-old Duncan started his playing career as a member of Axe Cliff Golf Club and then, at the age of 11, joined Lyme Regis where he has been a member ever since.

Duncan played on the professional circuit where he achieved some success but decided to return to his first love of teaching. He started his teaching career at Wind-whistle Golf Club and then moved to Lyme Regis as the Club Professional, where he has been for the last ten years.

LADIES CAPTAIN'S DAY

ON THURSDAY, July 19th it appeared that summer had finally arrived and encouraged 71 ladies to take to the course to play in the main stableford competition.

The Silver Division winner was Rosie Jackman (40 points), reducing her handicap from 20 to 18, with second place going to Gilly Madill (32 points) on count back and third place to Anne Humphreys (32 points).

The Bronze Division winner was Emma Davies with 36 points, Jean Falconer was second with 35 points, and Sassy Hay was third with 33 points.

Portland's new signings on parade

Manager Adkins said: "The new signings all bedded in well. They settled straight away and looked contactable. We are building a very good third team side now and with other new signings such as Lee Clarke from last season's first division side Dorchester Borough still to come into the side, I'm confident we will be challenging for honours."

Any new players wanting to sign up can still come for a trial. Portland train on Tuesdays from 7pm at The Grove. New players are still needed for the first team who are now in division two of the Dorset Football League.

BOWLS ROUND-UP

Bridport Ladies take eight points from Greenhill match

BRIDPORT LADIES

with Alan Brown

BRIDPORT Ladies took eight points from Greenhill in the first division of the County League.

Top scorers were Laura Taylor, Alison Tibble, Barvbara Iversen and Margaret Clapp who won 34-11, and they were backed by Pamela Daters, Delphine Street, Sheila Jones and Melody Watts who triumphed 19-17.

It would be churlish not to mention the third rink of Gill Hunt, Mary Corfield, Rosemary Brooks and Sue Hosking who only lost 15-16 in an overall 68-45 success.

The men's A and B teams met in a County League fixture which the A team won 70-45, but the B team's Craig Boshier, Norman Ludders, Norman Eccles and Mel Griffiths stole two points from Fred Pomeroy, Bob Seadon, Peter Scott and Clive Langdon with a 18-17 victory.

BRIDPORT INDOOR

with Brian Baker

BRENDA Nicholson, Chris Clarke and Roy Gill's Gymnasts put on a super show to beat the Hurdlers 23.7 in the Morning League.

Peter Hunt, Millie Meech and Brian Morgan's Sprinters are almost out of sight at the top of the Morning League after a 16.6 win against Cyclists.

Julia and Clive Baynes and Chris Everest's Sailors sent a good luck message to Ben Ainsley after beating Divers 16.6.

Pat Geary, Reg Dodd and Margaret Pestelle's Archers put paid to Wrestlers 13.6.

Penny and Robin Pither and Derek Fitzgerald's Equestrians and Bernard Waterman, Phil Benton and Ruth Harris's Swimmers drew 8.8.

Tony Sharood, Brian Legg and Brian Morgan's Eros kept top spot in the Evening League, claiming the top gods of the week award, with a 21.10 win over Zeus.

Mary Hansford, Brian Baker and Jenny Harding's Hades kept up their challenge for runners-up spot, defeating Aphrodite 16.9.

Gordon Lee, Robin Pither and Liz Walker's Apollo had a 18.10 win over Athena.

Beryl Stork, Bernard Wright and Andy Marsh's Poseidon, the moody gods of the sea were smiling after a 14.13 win over Pan, a two count on the final end saw Julia and Clive Baynes and Kevin Moys Hermes draw with Bernard Waterman, Adrian Legg and Kenenticott's Helios 13.13.

LYME REGIS

with Paul Moffitt

THERE was a full week of games for the club without interruptions from the weather, in fact at times some players found it quite hot.

Mixed fortunes again in the leagues, the ladies and the 'A' team both securing eight points in their games but the championship side only managed two points away to Alexandra Park.

Ladies Captain, Ann Allman, held her annual Lady Captain's Day on Thursday with invited teams from Axminster, Bridport, Chardstock, Seaton, Westlands and a guest team comprising the president of the Dorset Women's Bowling League and the Vice President of Bowls Dorset.

The competition is played on a round-robin basis with the winning team collecting the Captain's Cup.

The game was followed by a superb meal in the clubhouse beautifully arranged by catering officer Sue Wood and her many helpers.

Lyme failed to win either of the friendlies being well beaten in their annual fixture against Cardiff. This game was finished off with a BBQ, the players also being treated to the Red Arrows halfway through the game!

RESULTS

BOB BUCKLER RACING

Summer rain isn't helping

THIS summer's weather has played havoc with many things, and none more than frustrated National Hunt trainers who train on horses suited to fast ground to run through the summer months.

The heavy rainfalls have left many courses waterlogged or at least ground far too heavy and unsuitable for many to run.

Among those are five horses in Bob Buckler's stables at Henley who have been waiting patiently for the good ground they need.

Among those is Ethiopia who last year won four times in three months during late spring and early summer, but this year has struggled on the few occasions that Buckler has found a suitable race because the ground has been softer than he likes.

With National Hunt taking a 12 day 'holiday' from this weekend, he ran in the three-and-a-quarter mile Equiform Nutrition Handicap Chase at Southwell, some 450 mile round trip.

He finished sixth after making a blunder at the 11th fence when he bumped into Hills of Aran and lost his momentum, and although Andrew Glassonbury picked him up and the nine-year-old stayed on he had lost too much ground.

Buckler said: "The course is too flat and fast for him really - he prefers bigger, undulating ones - but he was tracking the leaders and travelling sweetly when he took off too early.

"We call it 'half lengthed'; where your horse takes off on seeing the one he is almost alongside do likewise. The other horse's action triggers yours to jump when he is not quite in his stride.

"As a result he clipped the back of the other horse on landing and lost his momentum before picking up again by which time the leaders had left him. He stays forever and kept on going but it was a lost cause by then."

Cullahill, another who ran well last year, winning three and being placed in nine of his eleven races during the summer, also had to travel to the Nottinghamshire track to find a race.

He fared better, finishing third in the 32Red Casino Handicap Chase over three miles, but may have improved on that had he not been hampered twice; at the 15th fence and two out when it looked like he might have caught second placed Five out of Five.

"He ran a reasonable race and was a bit unlucky not to have got second.

"The problem is that there is not the choice of races in the summer that there is during the winter months, and so suitable races are few and far between.

"Sometimes you have race them in one which is not really suited, like Ethiopia who prefers hillier courses, and of course in a situation like this summer, races are often oversubscribed and you get good fields; again there were only eight runners in Ethiopia's race but they had won 27 races between them."

Mister Matt was scheduled to go to Worcester on Tuesday, and could go again at Newton Abbot on Saturday along with Boxatrix, a new horse to the stable who will be making his track debut in a bumper.

Local rivals do battle in U18s competition

DORCHESTER Under 18s will be looking to defend the Bright Sparks Under 18 Cup on Sunday (August 5th) at Dorchester Rec, where they meet Martinstown and 2010 champions Cerne Valley in a T20 competition starting at 10:30am.

Dorchester, who defeated Weymouth in last year's competition thanks to a match winning performance from Jon Legg, will no doubt want to reclaim the cup on home soil.

But they will face stiff competition from local neighbours Cerne and Henry Lewis' Martinstown.

Lee House, competition co-organiser, said: "Many thanks go to Ross Moors, of Bright Sparks electricians, who has agreed to sponsor the competition once more.

"Without Ross' generosity we would struggle to run this competition to the standard the lads deserve. Thanks also to Rachel Bailey and the Dorchester & District Evening League for all their help and support. These folk give up their time to run a fine league and I know this season, with all the rain, has proved many headaches but they continue to work hard without complaint."

The competition, designed to showcase local cricketing talent and bridge the gap between youth and adult cricket was reformed in 2009 after an absence of 50 odd years. Spectators are encouraged to attend what should be a memorable day with some outstanding cricket on display.

INSIDE EDGE - DORSET CRICKET ROUND-UP

Beaminster miss players in big defeat

DORSET FUNERAL PLAN LEAGUE
Premier Division

DORCHESTER 1st XI fell to their third consecutive defeat after a superb innings of 92 from league leaders Wimborne & Colehill's skipper Andy Hayward took the game away from Dorchester, who had reduced their visitors to 32-3.

James Dunham (2-42) and two wickets from Dan Belt (4-65) had given the county town optimism of getting back to winning ways, but Hayward found an ally in Ashley Collison (43) and they took control as they added 87 for the fourth wicket.

With decent contributions from four of the lower six batmen, Wimborne amassed 257-9 in their allotted overs.

Ian Sibley (13) and Pete Moxom (24) put on 44 for the first wicket as Dorchester made a bright reply, but only Dan Belt (24) could match Moxom's top score as wickets fell at regular intervals, and their innings closed on 161-9, and well short of the target.

Dorchester 161-9 lost to Wimborne & Colehill 257-9 by 96 runs

WEYMOUTH 1st XI continue to move up the table following their second consecutive victory and now occupy fifth spot after a fine win against Ferndown Wayfarers by seven wickets thanks to a fine 77 not out from Paul Payne.

Skipper Dean Janaway was delighted with the whole team's performance.

"Payner's innings and a great bowling display from Rob Nobbs on his return were great, but we played well all round and it was a fantastic win. The lads are really enjoying their cricket right now, and it shows in their play. We just need to keep the momentum going."

Ferndown decided to bat on winning the toss and made a terrific start with Rob Bowering (34) and Will Sansom (24) putting on 60 for the first wicket but when Dan Hutchens (2-33) had Bowering stumped by Jim Ryall, Weymouth found the foothold they were seeking.

Nobbs (5-48) got in on the act as Ferndown's middle order crumbled including Eric Linge (20) who had destroyed Dorchester the week before with a century.

However Weymouth's all round bowling display saw him frustrated and he eventually skied a ball from Ben Lawes (3-38) to Payne. Only Daryl Baines (30) showed any real resistance in the bottom order as Weymouth's bowlers completed the task by bowling out their visitors for 186.

Hayden White hit a bright 32 in an opening stand of 47 with Janaway (24), before Linge got revenge by bowling Lawes first ball. Kieron Womble (40 not out) joined Payne after Janaway's departure, and they saw the Seaside's home with an unbeaten stand of 113 in just 32 overs.

Janaway added: "Having lost the toss, I was a bit worried when they had scored 55 off the first eleven overs or so, and it looked like we were looking at a score of 250-300, but once we had made the breakthrough we managed to peg them back in the middle overs with tight lines and pressure and they had to try and play some big shots. Linge was obviously a big wicket but it was a great all round display in the field that did it.

"Our batting was pretty good as well; the only scare when Linge got revenge on Ben Lawes with a great ball, but we were patient and just put away the bad balls. This was an emphatic win and the club is buzzing right now especially with the seconds getting their first win."

Weymouth 187-3 beat Ferndown Wayfarers 186 all out by seven wickets

Division Two

CRANBORNE moved to joint top of the league with this win against Dorchester 2nds. Asked to field, Dorchester's Pete Phillips (2-70) made an early breakthrough before skipper Stuart Beasley (4-40) removed the other shortly afterwards.

However the arrival of the Cranborne captain changed the match and although James Caldwell (1-26) took a wicket there was no stopping the host skipper as he found all corners of the ground in an entertaining and deserved innings of 99.

Spinners Joe Power (0-54) and Aaron Oliver (1-15) were tried before Phillips was brought back and he caught and bowled him one short of his century.

Although Beasley cleaned up the last three wickets, the damage had already been done as Cranborne posted a target of 210-7 off their allotted overs.

In reply Pete Diffy (29) and Simon Joslin (9) got Dorchester off to a solid start, putting on 30 for the first wicket, before Joslin was bowled by a great yorker.

Caldwell helped Diffy add 32 for the second wicket but it was generally downhill from there on with Stu Voss the only batsmen to really make an impact on the score as Dorchester went down by 52 runs.

Cranborne 210-7 beat Dorchester 2nds 158 all out by 52 runs

BOTH Martinstown and Beaminster were missing some regulars on Saturday, in a match which saw Martinstown back in the race for the runners-up spot. Winning the toss, Beaminster captain Will Everitt decided to bat on what appeared a hard, good batting wicket.

Nick David (12) and Fred Everitt (37) proved it with a first wicket stand of 40 against some good bowling from Chris Read (0-42) and Matt Camp (1-20), and it took some good fielding work between Tom Bracey and Liam Banfield to run out David.

Simon Jones (23) and Will Everitt (13) made good contributions alongside Fred Everitt to put Beaminster in a commanding position at 93-2 before Liam Banfield (3-42) and skipper Danny Dancer (5-35) turned the game Martinstown's way. Despite a defiant 35 not out from Ross Baker, Beaminster were bowled out for just 144.

Despite some tight bowling from Jones (0-20) and Richard Runyard (0-18), openers Lee House (78 not out) and Ed Nichols (53 not out) could not be separated as they went on to pass their target in just 32 overs.

Dancer said: "This was a really good performance from us, with four or five regulars unavailable. We lost the toss and Beaminster elected to bat on a really hard wicket that looked to be a great batting pitch. Their openers started well and it took some good fielding from Tom and Liam to take the first wicket through a run-out.

"I was thinking that it was a 240 pitch, but we took key wickets at key times to reduce them to 97-5 before Ross Baker batted well in the later stages of their innings but ran out of partners at the other end.

"A really pleasing performance all round. Chris Read and Matt Camp bowled well early on but weren't able to get an early breakthrough, and then myself and Liam Banfield bowled well in tandem to build pressure and take wickets at crucial times. The session after drinks was fantastic as it looked as though they could have scored over 250.

"Housie and Ed then looked very assured in chasing down the total, which is great because we have struggled chasing down totals without drama this season.

"Credit to our groundsman for preparing a great wicket and a great cricket field after some difficult times with flooding."

Martinstown 146-0 beat Beaminster 144 all out by ten wickets

THIRTEEN was a lucky number for Weymouth 2nds on Saturday when they broke their duck with a four wicket win at midtable Witchampton after nine defeats and three cancellations this season.

Skipper Michael Pearce set the ball rolling with a wicket before Graham Puckett (3-47) reduced the hosts to 75-4.

The introduction of Ryan Monk, who picked up three wickets, saw the Witchampton run rate slow considerably and the middle order crumble. A good fielding display saw nine of the opposition caught and no dropped catches, and only a last wicket stand of 24 saw Witchampton boost their total to 135 all out.

The return of Will McKay was a significant factor in Weymouth's success with a top score of 37, supported by Pete Ward who batted sensibly and some good runs at the end from Cameron Armstrong and Harvey Tucker.

Witchampton 135 all out lost to Weymouth 2nd 136-6 by four wickets

Division Three

Bridport 1st XI had to cancel their match against Stalbridge 2nd because of a dangerous outfield. Contractors hired to spray weedkiller used the wrong tractor resulting in 75-100mm ruts around the boundary perimeter deeming it dangerous.

Captain Liam Toohill said: "It was annoying but there wasn't anything we could do. The ruts were quite deep and someone could have seriously injured themselves had they caught their foot in one.

"We are working hard to put it right before the weekend as we have important fixtures against Broadstone 3rds, Parley 2nds and Ferndown Wayfarer 2nds who are struggling near the bottom like us, which we need to win."

FOR the second week running Cattistock failed to win a game that was well within their grasp. After reducing their hosts to 118-8 they allowed the Ferndown tail end to wag with 16-year-old captain Connor Coppard, with a splendid 43 not out, and Will Avery (13) adding 43 for the ninth wicket as they finally totalled 164 all out.

Things looked good when Martin Langford (2-37) had Lee Charlton caught by Steve Tucker in the first over, but the other opener Julian Snook (46) anchored the innings and with help from brother Niall (21) and later Coppard posted a reasonable target in which Ben Gollidge (3-25) was Cattistock's best bowler.

Whilst most of the Cattistock top order managed to get a start none could get established and at 67-5 they looked in trouble.

Then Buddy Langford was joined by son Martin (49), who had dropped down the order because of a knee injury he sustained in the field and they put the visitors back in the game with a stand of 65 before Buddy was caught for 20 with the score 132-6.

Martin Langford was ninth one out short of his half century as Cattistock eventually fell 15 short of their target.

Ferndown Wayfarers 2nds 164 all out beat Cattistock 149 all out by 15 runs

Division Five North & West

BRIDPORT 2nds lost to a side that chanced their arm on a wicket with a lot of grass, and got away with it Although Shane Parker who picked up a wicket and Robin Jones who bagged a brace, both bowled well, the home batsmen survived a set a stiff target.

Liam Toohill (20) and Mark Smith tried the same tactics, but when Toohill went with the score on 30, nobody could stay with Smith long enough to challenge the total. Smith, who also took two wickets, ended carrying his bat for 59 not out as Bridport were bowled out for 160.

Henstridge 266-6 beat Bridport 2nd 160 all out by 106 runs

DORCHESTER 3rds lost an entertaining top of the table clash by 46 runs at home to Crewkerne with veteran Robbie James the star performer, scoring a patient 81 in 41 overs and taking 4-29 from his 12 overs.

Crewkerne batted first and found the pace bowling of 15-year-old Jake Pike and seam bowling of Javid Gill (1-21) very difficult to score from; both Briggs and James riding their luck with only 17 runs coming from the first 10 overs. Gill struck as Briggs finally lost patience and was bowled as it nipped back over the seam with the score on 24-1.

Fourteen-year-old Dan Allen, playing only his second senior match, bowled with great accuracy and lively bounce conceding only 10 runs from his five overs.

James and Keylock showed their experience adding 109 runs for the second wicket in 26 overs but more importantly leaving Crewkerne with eight wickets in tact for the last 15 overs, before Dan Morris (1-25) bowled Keylock (34) with the score on 133-2.

Crewkerne's hard hitting Gould ensured he upped the scoring tempo smashing 33 off only 12 balls including an effortless six off skipper Pete Tucker (5-32) in his first over, before Tucker gained his revenge when Gould was superbly caught by Matt Stevens as he ran in from the leg side boundary; Tucker thinking it may be heading for the trees again.

Opener James' patient innings eventually came to an end when he missed a straight ball from Tucker and was leg before wicket with the score on 197-5. Crewkerne's middle order found the boundary on regular occasions as the innings drew to a close on 231-7.

Dorchester innings got off to an awful start as the experienced seam bowling of Dave Parsons (4-29) struck three times in the first seven overs to leave Dorchester reeling on 29-3. A rebuilding exercise and some positive batting from Jae Miller (60) and Jamie Quinten (36) soon had the Dorchester total passing the 100 mark in only the 18th over.

However it was the slow left arm bowling of James who removed both Miller and Quinten within three overs. Firstly Miller slapped a short ball straight to the safe hands of Woodgate on the mid wicket boundary after an 85 minutes innings which included five 4s and a 6.

Quinten, playing only his second game of the season, showed some classy strokes to the cover boundary for his 36 before being caught by Parsons off James with the score on 120-5.

James then removed Gill and Eveleigh as he destroyed the Dorchester middle order who soon found themselves 155-9, and it was left to Jake Pike to produce an excellent cameo innings of 24 including four 4s and add 30 for the last wicket.

Tucker said: "The difference between the very young Dorchester side and the older Crewkerne team was experience and especially the patient batting and bowling of Robbie James. Despite some good batting from Miller and Quinten we could not replicate and fell short of victory."

Tucker, who claimed a 'five' himself, added: "On the bowling front it was good to see some good performances; the fiery pace of Jake Pike and Dan Allen produced another good tight bowling display."

Dorchester 3rds 185 all out lost to Crewkerne 231-7 by 46 runs

Division Six North & West

BEAMINSTER recorded their fifth win of the season beating second placed Shillingstone 2nds who, on winning the toss, decided to bat. The visitors found it hard as opening bowlers Paul Martin (3-63) and Ade Phillips (3-40) produced three maiden overs.

Martin's accuracy finally paid off with the wicket of M Abel (16) caught by Chris Lamb, whilst none of the batsmen looked comfortable against Phillips' change in length and speed, and he accounted for M Webber (13) and M White (4) to leave the visitors 44-3.

This brought G Studley to the wicket who anchored the rest of the innings with a tenacious 63 not out, and after Martin claimed S Antell's wicket, it was the turn of Dean Hyett (2-27) and Terry Field (1-23) to continue to put the brakes on the visitors.

Wickets fell steadily with Justin Gurd showing his juggling skills by holding on to a sharp chance to dismiss the skipper H Paulley, and then Martin taking an absolute stunner to end the innings of E West as Shillingstone were eventually dismissed for 166 all out.

The evergreen Dave Penman (16) and David Hall (38) got the reply off to a steady start, adding 32 for the first wicket, before Hall was overcome by cramp that saw him leave the field temporarily to be replaced by Martin who hit a rapid 42 including 24 in one over including two sixes and three fours off Antell.

He was replaced by Chris Lamb (18) who continued the onslaught with three fours in succession. At 132-3 it looked as if it would be easy but the loss of five wickets for just 28 runs saw Beaminster slump to 160-8 before young David Persey (12 not out) and Gurd (0 not out) saw the hosts home to a well deserved victory.

Skipper Hugh Rathbone said: "All our bowlers did well; Paul was hostile and accurate whilst Ade, as ever, bowled a crafty spell full of changes in length and speed which none of their batsmen looked comfortable against. Dean and Terry were just as miserly, and difficult to get away."

"We had a mini stumble in the middle of our batting, but the two young lads David and Justin saw us home to a well deserved victory, especially so after our dismal batting display against the same bowlers at Shillingstone."

Beaminster 2nds 170-8 beat Shillingstone 2nds 166 all out by two wickets

PORTLAND Red Triangle 2nds maintained their title hopes with a comprehensive victory over league leaders Martinstown 2nds.

Having won the toss PRT Skipper Grant Neven had no hesitation in electing to bat on a hard and flat wicket at the Windowman Oval. Once again his faith in his openers was rewarded as D.Males (23) and L.West (113) produced an opening stand of 92.

A.Qualye (31) look set to produce another high score but was forced to retire injured. Incoming batsman C.Laws (57no) punished anything short as the runs mounted.

With the dismissal of West, Laws was joined at the wicket by C.Theakstone and these two remained undefeated in a stand that fell one run short of a century as they added 99 runs in the last ten overs.

The Martinstown reply began swiftly as Portland were guilty of some wayward bowling and slack fielding. C.Crosthwaite (46) in particular found early runs easy to come by.

With the score on 77-1 after only 10 overs, an inspired double bowling change by skipper Neven saw Martinstown collapse to 103-7 as their batsman had no reply to the accurate bowling of C.Laws (3-23) and J.Locke (3-13).

It was left to batting hero L.West to claim the final wicket as Triangle completed a mammoth victory. Skipper Neven was full of praise for his charges but added: "We took our foot of the gas for a period today and gave away far too many easy runs, but we regrouped and proved that we a force to reckon with in this league."

Portland RT 2nd 270-2 beat Martinstown 2nd 110 all out by 160 runs

Division Three

THE game between Parley 2nds and Symene was interrupted by a thunderstorm after the first over of Parley's reply, which appeared to liven up the wicket as Colin Wilcox (3-12 from his eight overs) and Ollie Lee reduced the hosts to 29-4.

However a fifth wicket stand of over 50 where both batsmen were dropped, saw Parley get back in the game and they eventually ran out winners by three wickets.

Symene, missing big hitters Marcel Grunschloss and Ben Briscoe, both who could have added a fifth bowler to their attack, were grateful for a cavalier 32 not out from Keith Readings, who was dropped three times, and Liam Toohill (19) for their score of 112-9 which was reduced to a target of 96 off 34 overs for Parley because of the 40 minute break for rain.

Parley 2nd 96-7 beat Symene 112-9 on revised run rate

Friendly

AT 150-4 Broadwindsor looked in a strong position but collapsed against the bowling of B.Dixon - who took 5-5 off four overs - and were bowled out for 157 with Chris Park (76) and Steve Phillips (40) the main contributors.

It was a pity they hadn't managed another ten or so runs because North Perrott were made to work hard for their victory and only got home with an over to spare, with Jack Walklett (3-12 from eight overs) and skipper Ade Phillips (2-34) the pick of the home bowlers.

Broadwindsor have another friendly next week before returning to the Readers Mid-Wessex League for the Division One run-in, which they currently lead. With three games all at home, Broadwindsor have a great chance of holding off nearest challengers Westlands and Wincanton to retain the title they won last year.

Broadwindsor 157 all out lost to North Perrott 158-7 by three wickets

The wait is over! Olympics underway in Weymouth and Portland

THE expectations of seven years were finally realised on Friday evening with the opening ceremony of the London 2012 Olympics, which was watched by an estimated one billion world-wide.

Weymouth marked the event with their own celebration on Saturday and the lighting of the cauldron by triple Olympic gold medallist Ben Ainslie, who is looking to become the world's most celebrated sailor by winning again this week.

He ignited an Olympic cauldron mounted on a plinth of Portland stone in the Victory Ceremony area at the Weymouth and Portland National Sailing Academy on Saturday, using a flame from a lantern brought from Friday night's opening ceremony.

by Stuart Broom
 stuart@pemediia.co.uk

This is unique to Weymouth and Portland as none of the other co-host venues have their own flame.

Ainslie was one of the first sailors to compete with his Finn races starting on Sunday and has made a mixed start.

After the second race on Tuesday, Ben was lying in the Silver position behind the Dane Jonas Hoegh-Christensen.

He started with two seconds on Sunday, but a sixth and 12th place on Monday saw him struggling. Tuesday saw him finish fourth in race five and third in race six.

With two races on Thursday and another two on Friday he has a lot of work to do if he is to beat Hoegh-Christensen, who really only needs to keep Ainslie in his sights to win the gold. The final race is on Sunday.

Racing in ten classes takes place through until Saturday, August 11th with Weymouth's Nick Dempsey competing in the RS:X Men's event.

He opened with a fifth and seventh in his first two races on Tuesday which puts him fourth overall. ● THERE was better news however for William Fox-Pitt from Sturminster Newton who has won a silver team medal as part of the GB Equestrian team riding Lionheart.

Following the third part of the event, the show jumping on Tuesday morning, Team GB secured the silver medal behind winners Germany.
